Re: *Federal Insurance Co., et al. v. Al Qaida, et al.,
United States District Court for the Southern District of New York,
Docket No. 03-CV-6978

Dear Ms. Falsh:

I am once again requesting your assistance with service of process on Benevolence International Foundation ("Benevolence"), another defendant in the above referenced lawsuit. Prior to his imprisonment, Enaam M. Arnaout (Inmate Register No. 14504-424) was the executive director and founder of Benevolence, a Chicago-based Muslim charity that allegedly provided funds to assist the Al Qaida terrorist network. As a result of his status within the Muslim charity and his control over the organization's operations and funds, Mr. Arnaout is a sufficiently high-ranking official with the authority and/or responsibility to accept service of process on behalf of Benevolence. See Smith v. Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan, 2001 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 21712, *12 (S.D.N.Y.) (holding that service of process upon an incarcerated senior officer is a proper method for serving a foreign terrorist organization); Legends Industries, Inc. v. C.P.P. Corp., 49 B.R. 935, 937 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1985) (stating that the person accepting service of process should have the sufficient authority or responsibility within the organization so as to make it reasonable to assume that he will realize his responsibility and know what he should do with any legal papers served upon him).

Therefore, please serve the attached Summons and Amended Complaint on Benevolence through Mr. Arnaout and kindly return a notarized Affidavit of Service once your office has successfully completed service on Benevolence.

Sincerely,

COZEN O'CONNOR
